Your signature indicates the intent to transfer all ownership rights in the above described property (form, value and use) to Michigan State University.
*We reserve the right to dispose of out-of-scope, beyond-affordable preservation, or excessive duplicate items.

Your official tax receipt will come from the MSU Foundation. The value of your gift will not be indicated on the receipt. You are advised to make note of the value of the gift for your own records. If you are donating a service, you will not receive a tax receipt; however, you may receive MSU gift credit. Please note: If your gift is valued above $5,000, you must provide an appraisal (at your expense.) Federal law places the responsibility for establishing the fair market value of a work contributed to a not-for-profit organization with the donor. Donors who want an appraisal of their gift for tax purposes are referred to the relevant Internal Revenue Service Publications, e.g. IRS Publication 561 (Determining the Value of Donated Property.) Another informative publication is IRS Publication 526 (Charitable Contributions.) IRS Form 8283 (Noncash Charitable Contributions) will need to be filed with the donor’s 1040 form. The 8283 Form is signed by the appraiser and a representative from the MSU Foundation. Donors are advised to consult their personal attorneys or tax advisors.
